

The KTM GROUP is where forward-thinking minds meet adrenaline-fueled jobs.

If you're passionate about forging the future and, of course, motorcycles, then working for the biggest motorcycle manufacturer in Europe may just be the perfect opportunity for you.

RACE MECHANIC / GEARBOX TECHNICIAN FOR MOTOGP (m/f)

TASKS

- » Construction of gearboxes, couplings and throttle bodies for the MotoGP at the development location in Munderfing
- » Development of modern motorcycles
- » Storage of the gearbox parts including reordering
- » various construction work for tests and driving trials
- » simply technical documentation

PROFILE

- » completed training as a car mechanic
- » many years of experience as a mechanic, ideally in the motorcycle or motor sports sector
- » good knowledge of gear technology
- » MS-Office skills
- » good English skills (cooperation with international colleagues)
- » communicative personality with flexibility and distinctive team orientation
- » self-responsible work and absolute reliability
- » above-average commitment and resilience
- » Accuracy and detail Focus

WE OFFER

- » The opportunity to help shape the future of Europe's most successful motorcycle manufacturer
- » attractive social benefits, flexible working times and a unique company culture characterized by collegiality and team spirit
- » performance-related remuneration starting from € 39.000 (gross) per year (extra payment possible)