

The KTM GROUP is where forward-thinking minds meet adrenaline-fueled jobs. If you're passionate about forging the future and, of course, motorcycles, then working for the biggest motorcycle manufacturer in Europe may just be the perfect opportunity for you.

SENIOR DESIGN ENGINEER CHASSIS MOTO2 & MOTO3 (M/F)

TASKS

- » 3D design of components and construction groups of our Moto2 and Moto3 chassis with Creo
- » clarification of technical details as well as close cooperation with other departments (QM, Purchasing, Assembly)
- » technical documentation (installation instructions, exploded-view drawings etc.)
- » direct communication with international suppliers
- » continuous improvement of vehicle components as well as support in the completion of parts breakdown

PROFILE

- » sound technical education
- » experience in 3D design (minimum 5 years) with ProE/Creo and good knowledge of Windchill
- » experience in race engineering / project management is a plus
- » good command of MS Office and English
- » open person with ability to work in a team
- » autonomous, reliable and structured working style
- » capability of high work load

WE OFFER

- » the opportunity to help shape the future of Europe's most successful motorcycle manufacturer
- » an interesting range of duties within the international racing
- » attractive social benefits, flexible working times and interesting further training opportunities as well as a unique company culture characterized by collegiality and team spirit
- » performance-related remuneration starting from € 45.000 (gross) per year (extra payment possible)